Unto the Populace of Unser Haven, Rosalind of Wellmark bids you greetings.

On April 4, Lord Cirith of Ashwood from the Citadel of the Southern Pass (El Paso) became the Crown Prince of the Outlands. Lady Morgana of Lands End is Crown Princess. I hope many of you will be attending their coronation in Caer Galen in May.....the ceremonies are great.

Congratulations to Lady Mazuna, The Honorable Lady Llamrei and all who helped and performed at the first annual Eisteddfod (have I finally learned how to spell it??). The event was well organized and very entertaining, and the food was great - thanks to Lord Gerald, M'Lady Flyte, and their able assistants in the kitchen. Their Majesties bestowed honors on several of our populace at this event...our dance mistress received a Grant of Arms to become The Honorable Lady Catriona Sterling de Liston; Lady Drahomira received an Argent Hart for Arts and Sciences; Lord Tamlene and Lady Dorothea received their Awards of Arms. Their Excellencies inducted Lady Medhbh, Lady Chala, and Lady Madeleine into the Order of the Builders of the Portcullis. One of the highlights of the event was the children's play, facilitated by Lord Titus, which everyone in attendance really enjoyed. I am looking forward to the 2nd annual....

Many thanks to M'Lady Katerina for her service as our Hospitaller - I will miss her at officers' meetings. Minimoto no Akira San has assumed the office.

May 1 marks our entry into the 27th year of the society, so don't forget to make this change wherever appropriate in correspondence, etc. Also, don't forget to check the Outlandish Herald for events you are planning to attend, and get your reservations mailed.

Anyone who is even remotely thinking about attending the Pennsic War in August needs to let me know before May 15. The Kingdom is reserving land for the event and approximate numbers must be compiled.

In service to the Barony and the Outlands,

Rosalind

Lady Medhbh O'Duibhdabhoireann of Clontarf
Barbican Pursuivant Extraordinary

F.Y.I. FROM THE HERALD

I was going through some of the old letters in the files and I came across an article on documenting names. With so many new people in the Barony now I thought it might be a good idea to put it into print.

For a name submission, what's needed in short, is a photo-copy of a page from a book which shows that the name was used AS A NAME, by HUMAN BEINGS, in PERIOD. You will need a photocopy of documentation for every part of the name. For example if you choose the name Medhbh O'Duibhdabhoireann of Clontarf, you need a page from a book showing that Medhbh is a given name in period, another page showing that O'Duibhdabhoireann is a period surname, and a third page showing that Clontarf is a period place name, with all parts of the name being from the same culture or closely related to each other. Also from each book include a photocopy of the title page which should contain the book title and publisher.

In some cultures, names of gods were also used by people, but NOT in most cultures. Make sure that the PARTICULAR name in question was used by odinary mortals. Also, just because a word existed in period doesn't make it a name. You must show that it was actually used as a persons name, not just a nickname.

WARNING: many names books do not give the dates for the names they discuss, stay away from these. You must have a date with the name to show that it would have been used in the time period covered by the SCA (a pre-1600 date).

Most names were derived from words, but this derivation was pre-medieval. By the Middle Ages, the meaning of the name and the word that it came from, was forgotten or irrelevant. So unless you are choosing a name that has a specific meaning to you, don't worry so much about the meaning as you do about the date.

I have found that locally the best place to look for information is the CSU library. You do not have to be a student to get a library card but you will need to show them your drivers license.

Before you make a mountain of copies, get the herald to look at your documentation to make sure you have what is required.

Unto the populace of the Barony of Unser Hafen doth Lord Aedhan Brecc send greetings.

First of all, congratulations to our soon to be Crowned Heads of the Outlands, Their Royal Highnesses Cirith and Morgana. For those of you, including myself, who don't know who they are I hope to see many of you at Coronation so that we can put faces on their names. Secondly, I would like to thank Lord Tracker for volunteering to initiate fighter training with some of our newest victims, er, uh, aspirants that is, to this barbaric sport that we love so much. Thanks to everyone who has helped make my job that much easier thus far. Now on to the business at hand.

Tournament season is almost upon us and there are a few reminders we need to keep in the forefront of our minds. First, make sure your armor and weaponry are in good repair. Check all of your buckles and belts and nylon cord knots for wear and tear. It's kind of embarassing to take the field to fight for the honor of your beloved lady and just as the marshal calls," LAY ON !", your leg falls off. I've seen combatants sort of explode after taking a good hit and it's pretty scary.

Check the integrity of your weapons; both sword and shield, or whichever weapon you covet the most. If your shield is aluminum, examine the edges for tearing. It makes me mad when I cut a large groove in my stick from the jagged edge of someone's shield. If your shield is made of wood, make sure the metal edging is still intact and the wood is still hard and unyielding. Flying bits of plywood will go through a visor and possibly cause much gnashing of teeth, to put it mildly. For those of you who use plastic basket hilts, like myself, it's always a good idea to repeatedly inspect them for tearing, especially around the upper and lower tabs where they are attached to the stick. If you're unsure of what to look for, come and see me. I've gotten pretty good at knowing what to look for since I use them so much. The last thing I'll touch on in this vein is the rattan itself. If you're like some people I know, your weapon has a name. It could be Avenger, or Lightning, or Dr. Death, or even Tim. Whether it's named or unnamed, it is your friend and you must take care of your friend if it is to take care of you. Your weapon cannot talk to you but it will scream for help. I go through a lot of tape and the things I check for when I remove the tape are gashes and scrapes and that nasty sponginess. Sponginess is a sure sign that your weapon will soon become a broom so plan ahead for that eventuality.

There is something that has been bothering me for quite some time, and that is the practice of delivering blows on one another when partially armored. I don't think it wise to test your buddy's new elbows when he or she is not wearing their vambraces or helmet. Weapons have a tendency to deflect and I would sure hate to see a broken nose or a bruised and swollen forearm, not to mention some other body parts so near and dear to us. I also very strongly object to an unarmored person playing Conan with a fully armored fighter, with the intent of the armored fighter to practice his or her blocking skills. Don't forget, we as fighters are trained to react and sometimes we do just that without thinking. It has happened to me and I will never let it happen again. If you want to play that bad, then take your turn in the loaner suit or get your own. I have no objection to unarmored people wielding weapons for the purpose of demonstrating fighting stance or other VERY BASIC fighting precepts, but let's keep the flailing about to those in the hard suits, please.

The last thing I'll talk about is our attitude on the tourney field. Unser Hafen is blessed with very chivalrous and honorable fighters and that makes me glad. All I wanted to say is that as long as we remember who or what we are fighting for, whether it be the honor of our lady, as in my case, or the honor of our barony, or even our kingdom, we will always fight well.

Until next month,

Aedhan

BOTA & DRINKING HORN CLASS

On Saturday, 9 May 1992 at 2:00 P.M. I will be conducting a class on the conversion of commercially available bota bags and cow horns into more period looking and functional drinking items. The class will be held at Lady Theresea die Tanzerin's house at 622 Whedbee St., Ft. Collins. Those interested, please contact Lord Sean Ui Neill direct or via farspeaker at 482-6608 (Lady Theresea die Tanzerins' number).

UNIVERSITY OF CAERTHE We in the Society try to live our lives in accord with a strong code of personal honor. This aspiration is one of the glories of the SCA. The concept of honor was analysed by the Greek philosophers and was an integral part of the Medieval and Renaissance society that the SCA is based upon. Still, do you really know what honor is - and why it has been considered so important in all civilized societies? This month the Honorable Mindrakken van der Zilver will (appropriately enough) tell us about his researches "On Honor and Virtue". We hope to make this an evening of open discussion, and would particularly like to invite members of the chivalry.

We will meet on the fourth Wednesday of the month, May 27, 7:30 P.M., at the home of Lord Mindrakken and Lady Nina, 1423 South Pearl Street, Denver. (Take the Emerson/Clarkson exit from I-25 and go south. This is the exit just south of Broadway.) All are encouraged to attend. Period garb is optional, but appreciated. For further information, call Lord Mindrakken, 733-8103, Lady Amelia von Altburg, 750-0180, or Master Robin Vinehall, 444-5004.

Moonviewing

Wrap yourself in a kimono and enjoy a Japanese evening of skygazing.

The emphasis is on being as period Japanese as possible (English, eyeglasses, and cigarettes will be allowed). To encourage this, a number of contests will be held (with Japanese prizes), including best male and female period Japanese costume, and best extemporaneous Haiku.

The moon will be most cooperative for the event Saturday, May 9. The event will begin at 2:00, with clean-up at 11:00pm.

We will not have a feast, but bring your own sake, food and Japanese food gear. Please, no strange utensils from the west (however, red wine and European-looking wine glasses did exist in late period Japan). Also, bring your enclosed fires (stove or hibachi) for cooking and heating the all-necessary tea and sake (yes, this is a WET site).

No camping is available, but there will be running water and a privy.

No site fee!

BRIGAND'S BATTLES

Welcome to the continuing saga of Brigand's Bizarre. In this the fourth episode, will the Merchants tire of the relentless raging ravaging rascals called Brigands? Will they eradicate this scourge to humanity? And most important, will the Merchants be able to make a profit from the delivery and sale of their goods? To find the answers to these and many other questions (Will it rain? Did I just knock over your beer? Which color tape do I need? etc... come and live the story on May 22-24, 1992 in Briggsdale, CO.

After a bitter winter, the Merchants prepare their wares for the long and treacherous journey to the markets of foreign lands. The castle by the sea seemed secure enough until...

SEASIDE SIEGE Merchants defending, Brigands attacking by boat The castle may only be attacked from the water.

The Merchants embark up the river on the first leg of the journey only to be set upon by pirates (river Brigands).

RIVER RAVAGE 8 boats which are not to be used as shields Leg shots not allowed. If the boat breaks, you've bought it (death by drowning, that is). The river is bound by marshes

The battle strays close to the shore of what appears to be an island and all are shipwrecked...

ISLAND INVASION A ribbon will signify the cliff edges of the island. If you stray over the edge, you will be smashed on the rocks below and devoured by piranha.

But, on second glance, the Merchants discover they have not been battling on an island after all. To the rear a swamp leads to firm soil...

SWAMP SLOG All fighters on their knees unless they are standing on the rafts. The dead sink in the bog for future archaeologists to discover and puzzle over.

Crossing the marsh lands, both Merchants and Brigands acquire steeds to speed them on their way...

MOUNTED MARAUDING Various livestock, unmounted fighters must be on their knees. Dead of any species must remain on the field.

As the trail leads up into the high lands, the livestock can't stand the pace, and non remain as the two groups approach a deep dark, forbidding canyon...

HAPPY CANYON Wall section form the canyon. Dead pile deep between the sheer sides.

As it is late and getting dark, the forces break off the conflict to rest and recover in the night. However, the next morning, the Merchants discover that under cover of darkness, the Brigands have left. The Merchants fear that somewhere on the road ahead, an ambush awaits...

The Merchants follow the trail onto a knife-like ridge, only to find part of the road has slid down the mountain. The ambush...

CHASM SPASM Ribbon will mark the boundary of the ridge. A narrow plank spans the deep chasm. Stepping past the ribbon causes one to plunge into oblivion, collect a free drink, and continue farther up the mountain.

MOUNTAIN TRAIL The Merchants are again set upon as the trail curves around the bulk of the mountain.

Racing along the mountain trail, the Merchants discover a narrow suspension bridge leading into a truly awesome tunnel...

BRIDGE BATTLE One on one on the bridge with accumulated wounds. If you fall off the bridge, you are dead!

TUNNEL TURMOIL Better tunnel, dead pile up thick in the darkness.

The Merchants emerge from the tunnel and proceed on to the plains below where the engage the Brigands in a fierce...

CHARIOT CHASE 4 men are horses with one weapon. The charioteer has weapon, shield and missiles. Dead leave the field so they aren't run over.

Finally, the Merchants reach the castle where their goods are sorely needed, but, the ambitions of the Brigands have expanded to include the castle and the surrounding countryside. They set up in an old abandoned fortress to terrorize the locals...

CASTLE CONTROL 2 castles as base of operations. Control both castles, control the countryside.

As the conflict is brought to a close, festivities abound, including a ...

CHARIOT RACE This is a dangerous sport and as the excitement mounts, people can be wounded, or even killed (remember Ben Hur?)

TOYS AT BRIGAND'S BIZARRE

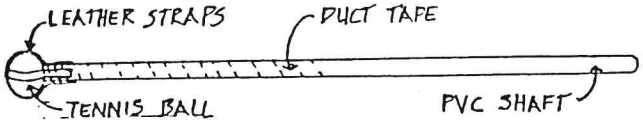
STICK BEASTS

This year at BBIV we will be holding a contest to see who has the best stick beast. Regardless of which team you may end up on, any type of riding beast may be made. The shaft may be made of either rattan or wood of at least 1 1/2" diameter and be between 5 and 6 feet in length. The head should not have any projecting items that could fit into eye-slots on a helmet. The rest is up to you and your imagination.

MISSILE WEAPONS

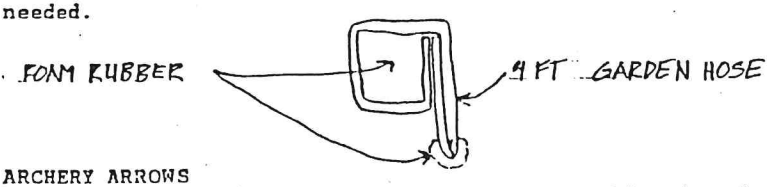
JAVELINS

The javelins are constructed of 1 1/2" diameter PVC schedule 40 pipe. The head is a tennis ball that is attached to the shaft by making a net of leather that is then taped to the shaft. The shaft should be spirally taped with duct tape.



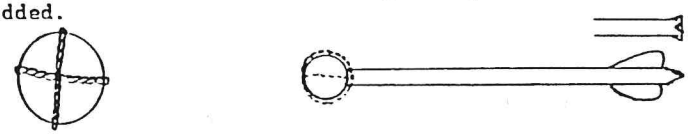
THROWING AXES

To make one throwing axe, 4 feet of garden hose, a 1 foot by 1 foot by 3" thick block of foam rubber, and lots of duct tape are needed.



ARCHERY ARROWS

The arrows are constructed using a golf tube shaft, and a tennis ball head. The tennis should be tied on by stout twine that is threaded through holes in the shaft. The head is then taped with duct tape. The shaft should be taped longitudinally and a notch cut in the end . Duct tape or poster board fletchings may be added.



The bows for combat archery must be 50 lb draw or less. We would like to see as many archers as possible in armor and on the field, but they must be authorized fighters and wear proper hand protection. Those archers who cannot be armored will still be allowed to participate in the same manner as in the past.

When making any of these toys, please keep in mind the safety of all concerned. We want everyone to have a wonderful time.

For your money, you will receive breakfast, lunch and dinner on Saturday, as well as breakfast and lunch on Sunday, with a continuous sideboard both days for fighters and others who wish to nibble between battles.

We are looking for as much participation by the Defenders of the Stags Blood of the Outlands as we can possibly get. If you are interested in assisting any of the autocrats, please call! Those who do, or offer significant assistance oat the event will find their site fee waived.

Beware! There will be an Inquisition! For a meager donation, have anyone you wish brought up on charges, no evidence required (for fun only!) Collected monies go to benefit an Outlandish Charity to be named at the event.

UNSER HAFEN WARDEN'S ARCHERY TOURNAMENT

The Barony of Unser Hafen's Defender Tournament is much more than just a heavy weapon tournament. It is also the Baronial Warden's Archery Tournament. This contest will determine the Unser Hafen Archery Champion for the next year. The Warden leads the Archers of Unser Hafen into battle for their Excellencies just causes.

In addition to the IKAC round for the actual Warden's Tournament on Saturday, archery tournaments and fun shoots will be held all weekend. Please bring your archery equipment, and join us in a weekend of good medieval sport. Loaner archery equipment will not be available at the site. If you need loaner equipment, please arrange for it in advance.

All prizes will be on display in the Arts and Sciences area, and will be given at the whim of their Excellencies in court.

CAERTHAN WARLORD AND PREMIER BLADE

The Barony of Caerthe invites you to attend its Warlord and Premier Tournament on the 18th and 19th of July at Windhover Field.

The event will feature, oddly enough, lots of fighting and fencing as valiant warriors compete for the honor of serving their Excellencies for the next year.

There will be other events as well, and they, as well as the exact format of the tournaments will be announced at the event, and possibly in later announcements.

The cost for the event is a modest $3.00 site fee. For those who wish, Lord Hespero is preparing a feast on Saturday night and breakfast on Sunday for another $7.00. Feast reservations are required, and will not be accepted after July 12. Reservations should be sent to the main autocrat, and checks should be made payable to SCA-Barony of Caerthe.

The site, as mentioned, is Windhover Field, the site for last years Warlord/Premier Blade, and many other events. There is no usable water on the site, so bring your own. Only contained fires are allowed on the site, and all pets must be under direct physical control at all times.

More information will be upcoming in later months. Offers of help of any kind will be gladly accepted.

HIGHLAND GAMES UPDATE

The Highland Games will be held on September 11, 12, and 13, 1992 in Estes Park, CO. For those who usually stay overnight, we will NOT be reserving the Elkhorn Lodge as has been done in previous years. Therefore, you need to make your own individual reservations for the nights you will be staying. Some of the 35 motels/hotels in the area are:

Elkhorn Lodge (303) 586-4416 - Discounts available if SCA is mentioned

Please note: Unless indicated, no discount rates have been discussed with any of the above-mentioned businesses. I have more names and telephone numbers if you need them.

It is suggested you make reservations soon as many motels/hotels have rooms already booked for that weekend.

I have received acknowledgements from three merchants who wish to sell their wares at the Games. Any other merchants who wish to do the same, please let me know. I'll need your name, address and sales tax number.

Finally, I will need to know by July 15, 1992 (Yes, I know it's a few months away, but it is a deadline set by the Estes Park Committee) a rough approximation of how many tickets we will need for our members. I will be giving them out ONLY to those members who signed up with one of my sub-autocrats (Lord Titus Claudius Severus (303/490-2936) - Fighting; Lady Marged (303/586-9401) - Set up; Lady Fionnghuala (303/484-5387) - Art & Sciences/PR; or Kenzie O'Padraig (303/482-7064) - Teardown/Clean up) for working half a day (approx 3 hours) each day you are attending.
